

Facebook Live

Lessons for Practitioners

Facebook has tools you can use for real-time teaching

Presented by

Youth Empowering Parents

With funding from

 Canada

Facebook Live

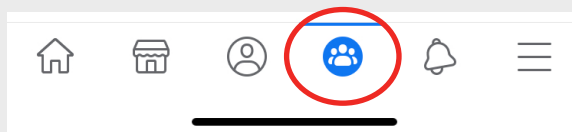

1

Find the Facebook app

- Look for the Facebook app on your device's home screen
- Tap on the Facebook app to open it
- If Facebook isn't installed on your device, open the App Store. You can search for Facebook and download the app. If you've never downloaded apps before, do this lesson first. If you've never used Facebook before, do this lesson first.

2

Open your Facebook Group

- Click on the Groups icon at the top of the Facebook page. Then, open your Facebook Group.
- If you've never used Facebook Groups before, do this lesson first

3

Facebook Live

- You can use Facebook Live to stream live video of your lesson to your learners. To do this, you'll need to use a phone or tablet with a camera to film yourself teaching.
- Tap Live to open Facebook Live

4

Start a live video

- Your phone may ask you to give Facebook permission to access your microphone and camera. If it does ask, tap Allow.
- You can add a description to your live video stream by tapping Tap to add a description. Type your description, then tap Done.
- When you're ready to start broadcasting, tap Start Live Video. Everyone in your group will see you've started a live video and can start watching it.

Facebook Live

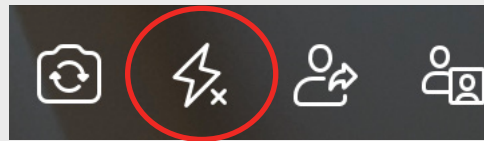

5

Switch cameras

- If your device has more than one camera, you can switch between cameras by tapping on the Switch Camera icon
- Switching cameras is useful if you want to show your learners someone else, like another person or an object

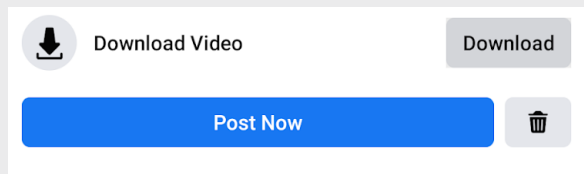

6

Use your camera light

- If your device has a flashlight, you'll be able to turn on the light by tapping on the Light icon
- The light is useful if your video is too dark for your viewers to see it well

7

Post your video

- You can end your live video by tapping Finish
- After you've ended a live video, you can post a copy of your video to your Facebook Group so that group members can watch it later. To do this, tap Post Now. You can choose to have Facebook automatically delete your video after 30 days.
- If you don't want to post a copy of your video to your group, tap the Trash icon on the bottom right of the screen